

GIRLS, HIV/AIDS AND EDUCATION

CONTENTS

CHAPTERS

Chapter 1	The changing face of HIV/AIDS.....	1
Chapter 2	Girls and women under threat .....	8
Chapter 3	The power of girls' education.....	12
Chapter 4	Call to action.....	18

BOXES

Box 1	Global commitments .....	5
Box 2	Education under siege.....	7
Box 3	A child-friendly school.....	11
Box 4	Sexual behaviour varies by educational level.....	17
Box 5	International initiatives to improve girls' education.....	21
Box 6	Strategy for gender parity in education: '25 by 2005' .....	23
Box 7	Mexico's children have new opportunities .....	25
Box 8	A health-promoting school .....	25

FIGURES

Figure 1	In 11 countries in sub-Saharan Africa, at least 15% of children were orphans in 2003 .....	2
Figure 2	Orphans are less likely to attend school.....	3
Figure 3	Orphans are less likely to be at the proper educational level .....	4
Figure 4	Young women (aged 15-24) who have comprehensive and correct knowledge of HIV .....	6
Figure 5	Young women (aged 15-24) who have heard of HIV/AIDS and know three ways of preventing HIV infection .....	13
Figure 6	Young women (aged 15-24) who know a healthy-looking person can transmit HIV.....	13
Figure 7	Young men (aged 15-24) who know a healthy-looking person can transmit HIV.....	13

Figure 8	Young women (aged 15-24) who know where to be tested for HIV .....	14
Figure 9	Married women (aged 15-49) who report discussing HIV/AIDS with their partner .....	14
Figure 10	Women (aged 15-49) in Zimbabwe who believe a wife is justified in refusing sex with her husband.....	15
Figure 11	Women (aged 15-49) in Cambodia who sought treatment for a self-reported sexually transmitted infection.....	15
Figure 12	Young women (aged 15-24) who used a condom at last high-risk sex... 16
Figure 13	Young men (aged 15-24) who used a condom at last high-risk sex.....	16

TABLES

Table 1	Young women (aged 15-24) who have comprehensive and correct knowledge of HIV, by educational level.....	27
Table 2	Young men (aged 15-24) who who have comprehensive and correct knowledge of HIV, by educational level.....	27
Table 3	Young women (aged 15-24) who know that a healthy-looking person can transmit HIV, by educational level .....	28
Table 4	Young men (aged 15-24) who know that a healthy-looking person can transmit HIV, by educational level.....	29
Table 5	Young women (aged 15-24) who know where to get tested for HIV, by educational level.....	30
Table 6	Young men (aged 15-24) who know where to get tested for HIV, by educational level.....	30
Table 7	Young women (aged 15-24) who used a condom at last high-risk sex, by educational level.....	31
Table 8	Young men (aged 15-24) who used a condom at last high-risk sex, by educational level.....	31

REFERENCES .....	32
-------------------------	-----------