

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGIES
FOR POVERTY ALLEVIATION

Roger W. Harris

CONTENTS

PREFACE	4
INTRODUCTION	4
I. CONCEPTS AND DEFINITIONS	7
What is poverty, where is it, and how does it look when it has been alleviated?.....	7
What is the “digital divide”?.....	8
Does the digital divide refer only to access to technology?.....	10
What information technologies are capable of alleviating poverty?.....	12
II. DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES AND ICTS	15
What is the relationship between development, information and ICTs?.....	15
What strategies for poverty alleviation have been successfully assisted with ICTs?.....	17
III. THE LESSONS OF EXPERIENCE	35
What lessons can be learned so far?.....	35
What are the key social dimensions to ICTs for poverty alleviation?.....	37
How should project implementers engage with communities?.....	39
What are other project implementation considerations?.....	40
Can ICTs for poverty alleviation be sustainable?.....	42
IV. TOWARDS A GENERAL FRAMEWORK FOR POVERTY ALLEVIATION WITH ICTs	46
What are the policy dimensions relating to ICTs for poverty alleviation?.....	46
Is there a general framework describing poverty alleviation with ICTs?.....	47
V. CONCLUSION	50
Annex: Case Studies: Applying the Poverty Alleviation Framework.....	51
REFERENCES	67
FOR FURTHER READING	71
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	75