Delegation

3. Section 10 of the Principal Act is amended by inserting in sub-section/(1), "13B, 13C or 13D" after "section 13A".
4. After section 13A of the Principal Act the following sections are inserted:

Agreements and grant licences

- 13B. (1) The Minister may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, enter into an agreement with a person that contains a provision under which the Minister agrees to grant a licence or 2 or more licences under sub-section 13(2) (whether to that person or to any other person or persons) in respect of a foreign ship or 2 or more foreign ships.
- (2) Where the Minister has entered into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (1) with a person, the Minister may enter into a further agreement with the person varying the terms of the provision or varying the terms of the provision as varied pursuant to this sub-section.
- (3) Where the Minister enters into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (1) or, pursuant to sub-section (2), enters into a further agreement, the Minister shall cause a copy of the agreement or a copy of the further agreement, as the case may be, to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the agreement or the further agreement, as the case may be, is entered into.
- (4) Where -
 - (a) the Minister has entered into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (1) of this section; or

(b) there is in force an agreement between Australia and the government of another country that contains a provision under which licences under sub-section 13(2) are agreed to be granted in respect of foreign ships (whether or not the provision also provides for the payment of an amount or amounts to Australia), the Minister or the Secretary shall, in determining whether or not to grant the licence or any of the licences to which the agreement relates, have regard only to the terms of the agreement.

(5) Sub-section (4) has effect only so far as that sub-section is not a law imposing taxation within the meaning of section 55 of the Constitution.

Payment of Levy

13C. (1) In this section, "Levy" means the levy imposed by the Foreign Fishing Boats Levy Act 1981 on the grant of a licence in respect of a foreign ship.

(2) The Minister or the Secretary may make arrangements with a person by whom an amount of levy is or will become payable in relation to the time for payment of, or the manner of payment of, the amount of levy or any part of that amount.

(3) The Minister may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, enter into an agreement with a body corporate that is incorporated under a law in force in a State or Territory and has applied, or intends to apply, for the grant of a licence or 2 or more licences under sub-section 13(2) in respect of a foreign ship or 2 or more foreign ships, being an agreement that contains a provision under which the Minister agrees, in consideration of the body corporate agreeing to provide a benefit or benefits for Australia within a period or periods specified in the agreement, to exempt the body corporate from the liability to pay the whole or any part of the amount of levy that would, but for this sub-section, be payable in respect of the grant of that licence or those licences and, subject to sub-section (6), where the Minister enters into such an agreement, the body corporate is not liable to pay that amount of levy or that part of that amount, as the case may be.

(4) Where the Minister has entered into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (3) with a body corporate, the Minister may enter into a further agreement with the body corporate varying the terms of the provision or varying the terms of the provision as varied pursuant to this sub-section.

(5) Where the Minister enters into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (3) or, pursuant to sub-section (4), enters into a further agreement, the Minister shall cause a copy of the agreement or a copy of the further agreement, as the case may be, to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the agreement or the further agreement, as the case may be, is entered into.

(6) Where the Minister has entered into an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (3) with a body corporate and the body corporate fails to provide the benefit or any one or more of the benefits that the body corporate had agreed to provide under the provision or, if the provision has been varied pursuant to sub-section (4), under the provision as so varied, within the period in which the body corporate had agreed to provide that benefit or those benefits -

(a) the amount of levy or the part of the amount of levy from the payment of which the Minister had agreed to exempt the body corporate forthwith becomes due and payable by the body corporate; and

(b) the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the body corporate, suspend the licence or any one or more of the licences granted to the body corporate under sub-section 13(2) pursuant to the agreement.

(7) Where the Minister has suspended a licence under sub-section (6), the Minister shall, by notice in writing given to the holder of the licence, revoke the suspension if -

(a) the body corporate pays to the Commonwealth the total amount of levy payable in respect of the grant of the licence and any amount that is payable by way of penalty under sub-section (11) in relation to that amount of levy; or

(b) the Minister is satisfied that the body corporate has provided the benefit or benefits the failure to provide which resulted in the suspension of the licence.

(8) Where a person who is liable to pay an amount of levy on the grant of a licence under sub-section 13(2) in respect of a foreign ship (not being a licence granted pursuant to an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (3) fails to pay that amount to the Commonwealth at or before the time when that amount became due and payable, the Secretary may, by notice in writing given to the person, suspend the licence.

(9) Where the Secretary has suspended a licence under sub-section (8), the Secretary shall, by notice in writing given to the holder of the licence, revoke the suspension if the holder of the licence pays to the Commonwealth the unpaid amount of levy on the grant of the licence and any amount that is payable by way of penalty under sub-section (11) in relation to that amount of levy.

(10) An amount of levy on the grant of a licence (not being an amount of levy that becomes due and payable in accordance with sub-section (6) becomes due and payable -

(a) where the Minister or the Secretary has, pursuant to sub-section (2), made arrangements with a person by whom the amount of levy is or will become payable in relation to the time for payment of, or the manner of payment of, the amount of levy or any part of that amount - in accordance with the arrangements; and

(b) in any other case - upon the expiration of 30 days after the grant of the licence.

(11) Where a person who is liable to pay an amount of levy on the grant of a licence in respect of a foreign ship fails to pay that amount or any part of that amount to the Commonwealth at or before the time when that amount became due and payable, the person is liable to pay to the Commonwealth, by way of penalty, in addition to that amount of levy, an amount calculated at the rate of 10% per month upon the amount of levy from time to time remaining unpaid, computed for the period commencing on the day on which that amount of levy became due and payable and ending on the expiration of the period specified in the licence as being the period during which the licence is to remain in force.

(12) An amount of levy that is due and payable and any amount that is payable by way of penalty under sub-section (11) may be recovered by the Commonwealth in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Commonwealth.

Fisheries agreements

13D. (1) If Australia enters into an agreement with the government of another country that contains a provision under which licences under sub-section 13(2) are agreed to be granted in respect of foreign ships (whether or not the provision also provides for the payment of an amount or amounts to Australia), the Minister shall cause a copy of the agreement to be laid before each House of the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the agreement is entered into.

(2) Where -

- (a) an agreement that contains a provision of a kind referred to in sub-section (1) is in force;
- (b) the provision provides for the payment of an amount or amounts to Australia;
- (c) a licence or licences to which the provision relates has or have been granted under sub-section 13(2) in respect of foreign ship or foreign ships; and
- (d) the amount or amounts specified in the provision or any part of that amount or of those amounts is not paid to Australia in accordance with the terms of the provision, the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the holder of licence of a kind referred to in paragraph (c), suspend the licence.

(3) Where the Minister has suspended a licence under sub-section (2), the Minister shall, by notice in writing given to the holder of the licence, revoke the suspension if the amount or the amounts the failure to pay which resulted in the suspension of the licence is or are paid to Australia.

(4) Sub-sections (2) and (3) have effect only so far as those sub-sections are not laws imposing taxation within the meaning of section 55 of the Constitution.
