

Name: Brekke, Harald

Elected to CLCS: 1997 and 2002

Born: 1953

Nationality: Norway

Organization: Norwegian Petroleum Directorate

Current Position: Senior Geologist

Overview of Expertise: Geology, specializing in structural geology, seismic interpretation and hydrocarbon assessment

Summary: University degree (Cand. real) in hard rock geology with emphasis on structural geology and stratigraphy, University of Bergen, Norway. 25 years experience in seismic interpretation, continental shelf mapping, hydrocarbon exploration and Government resource management. Member of 1995 UN Group of Experts on Preparations for the Establishment of the CLCS. Member of Norwegian National group for the mapping of the limits of the continental shelf. Regional experience also from Arctic Ocean, Northern Atlantic, Southeast Atlantic and Indian Ocean. Member of EAGE and President of the Geological Society of Norway.