

Bio nr.1:

You are Ricardo Lopez from Mexico City, Mexico. You dropped out of school when you were 10 years old. You thought school was dumb and a waste of time. You ended up homeless on the streets of Mexico City by the age of 14. You are now 18 years old and have a hard time reading and doing simple math. You are applying for a job as a cashier at a grocery store.

Interviewer questions:

- ◆ What kinds of skills do you have for the cashier position?
- ◆ Our cash registers do not total the customers change, can you count the right change for their purchases?
- ◆ Many times we have sales ads that appear in the newspaper. We need you to know what items are on sale and what their sale price is. Can you do this on your own?
- ◆ What is your past job experience? Do you have any job references we can call?
- ◆ Why are you the right person for this job?

Bio nr. 2

You are Johanna from South Africa. You finished high school and just completed your college degree in international business. You graduated magna cum laude and had an internship in the marketing department with AT& T your last year of college. They have asked you to interview for an open position in their marketing department at their offices in Johannesburg.

Interviewer questions:

- ◆ What kinds of skills do you have for open position?
- ◆ What did you learn from your internship that will apply to this position?
- ◆ Why are you the right person for this position?