

Africa's Pablos and Political Entrepreneurs
War, the State and Criminal Networks in West and Southern Africa

by
Gail Wannenburg

This publication is funded by the Rockefeller Brothers' Fund (RBF), the Open Society Initiative of Southern Africa (OSISA), and the Austrian Embassy, Pretoria.

The South African Institute of International Affairs
Johannesburg
2006

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Acknowledgements | vii |
| Introduction | ix |
| Section I: The African State and Organised Crime | |
| Chapter 1: Political Entrepreneurs or Organised Criminals? | 3 |
| Chapter 2: Criminal States, Conflict and Civil War | 21 |
| Chapter 3: Political Governance and Organised Crime | 65 |
| Chapter 4: Economic Governance and Organised Crime | 83 |
| Chapter 5: Social Governance and Organised Crime | 105 |
| Chapter 6: Types of Organised Crime and Transnational Networks | 111 |
| Section II: Various African Case Studies | |
| Chapter 7: Case Study: Sierra Leone | 165 |
| Chapter 8: War and Organised Crime in Southern Africa | 217 |
| Chapter 9: Case Study: Angola | 229 |
| Chapter 10: Case Study: Democratic Republic of Congo | 263 |
| Chapter 11: Case Study: Mozambique | 309 |
| Chapter 12: Case Study: Zimbabwe | 347 |
| Chapter 13: Conclusion and Recommendations | 379 |
| Select Glossary | 411 |
| Index | 415 |