

TO SPEAK FOR THE WORLD

Speeches and statements
by DAG HAMMARSKJÖLD
Secretary-General of the
United Nations 1953-1961

Selected, edited and introduced by Kai Falkman

ATLANTIS

Foreword	7
Prologue	9
Introduction	21
Time	51
Faith	57
The international public servant	63
The United Nations	67
The role of the Secretary-General	73
Neutral and neutrality	93
The diplomat and public opinion	103
Leadership	109
The United Nations Charter	117
Military force	125
New diplomatic techniques	129
The world and the nation	139
The world is a spiritual thing	145
Church — State	147
Human rights	151
Solidarity	157
International law	159
World government	163
Regional integration	165
Community of power	171
The United Nations and the Cold War	175
UN presence	181
East and West	185

The responsibility of the West – and of the individual	191
Freedom	197
Loyalty	199
Maturity of mind	203
Knowledge about man	207
An echo of the music of the universe	211
On modern art	217
The camera taught me to see	221
A room of quiet	225
Linnaeus – the continuity of spiritual life	229
A new look at the Himalayas	235
Last words to the staff	245
Epilogue	249