Decision by the Fellowship Selection Committee on the 2012-2013 Fellowship Awards

1. Pursuant to Article III (2.3A) and Article V of Annex A of the aforementioned Technical Cooperation Agreement, the Fellowship Selection Committee was established with the mandate “to review the applications submitted by interested developing country officials, and select those which will be awarded Project fellowships.” The composition of the Selection Committee was as follows:

Representative for DOALOS and Chair of the SELCOM:
Mr. Serguei Tarassenko (Director)

Alternate Representative for DOALOS:
Ms. Annebeth Rosenboom (Senior Legal Officer)

Representative for The Nippon Foundation of Japan:
Mr. Mitsuyuki Unno (Executive Director)

Alternate Representative for The Nippon Foundation of Japan:
Ms. Yukiko Kuwata (Project Coordinator, Maritime Affairs Department)

Eminent Scholar:
Professor Moritaka Hayashi (by correspondence)

Representative for DESA:
Mr. Tom Rudi (Fellowships Section)

Secretary of the SELCOM:
Mr. François Bailet (Programme Advisor, DOALOS)

2. The Selection Committee convened at the offices of DOALOS, United Nations Headquarters, New York (USA) on 4 October 2011.

3. After considering the short-listed candidates, the Selection Committee proceeded with a ranking of the most qualified candidates. From the rank-list, the Selection Committee agreed that 10 of these candidates would be granted fellowship awards, and 9 would be selected as reserve candidates.

4. The Selection Committee further agreed that in considering the candidates for fellowship awards, in addition to the relevant provisions of the Technical Cooperation Agreement, it would also be guided by the “Fellowship Selection Criteria” applied by the United Nations System Organizations.
