

The Vincentian Family at the UN Presents:
The Triad of Grass Roots Engagement, Advocacy, and Systemic Change in the Eradication of Poverty

Wednesday February 1 2017 1:15-2:30 pm
UN CONFERENCE ROOM B

Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations

Through 400 years of working closely with persons living in all phases of poverty, the Vincentian Family has directly witnessed the beneficial link between grass roots efforts, systemic change, and advocacy in over 150 countries around the world. Join us in highlighting the need to foster all three components--grass roots efforts, advocacy, and systemic change, as we embark on our journey toward tackling the 2030 Agenda, particularly Sustainable Development Goal 1.

SPEAKERS:

H.E. Ambassador David Donoghue, Permanent Mission of Ireland to the UN

Dr. Linda Sama, Founder and Director of GLOBE (Global Loan Opportunities for Budding Entrepreneurs) Program at St. John's University

Dylan Corbett, Executive Director, Hope Border Institute, Ciudad Juarez/El Paso/Las Cruces

Guillermo Campuzano, CM, UN NGO representative for the Congregation of the Mission

Video Clip about Inuit Persons

Teresa Kotturan, SCN, UN NGO representative for the Sisters of Charity Federation