

*Spiritual connection and right stewardship of land, territory, and resources, including water
for Indigenous Peoples*

When: Wednesday, April 18th, 2018

Time: From 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Where: Episcopal Church Center

815, 2nd Avenue – Room 301

Between 43rd and 44th St. (not far from the UN)

Moderator: Daniel LeBlanc

Speakers:

Atilano Alberto Ceballos Loeza - Leader in sustainable agricultural practices and defender of land and territory in Yucatan

Elvia de Jesús Arévalo Ordóñez - Member of the Council of Government of the Community CASCOMI (Amazon Community of Social Action Cordillera del Cóndor Mirador), integrated by native families and settlers of the parish Tundayme-Ecuador

Augustina Mayán Apikai - Awajún indigenous woman leader born in Cordoncanqui is the president of the Development Organization of Border Communities of Cenepa - ODECOFROC. <http://odecofroc-es.blogspot.com/p/nuestra-organizacion.html>

Leila Rocha – Guarani Nandeva, member of the board of Aty Guasu Guarani and Kaiowá, Mato Grosso do Sul

Sachem HawkStorm - Schaghticoke First Nations

Organized by:

Mining Working Group; NGO Committee on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples; Congregation of the Mission; VIVAT International; Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate; Caritas International; Dominican Leadership Conference; Franciscans International; Pan-Amazon Ecclesial network REPAM; CIMI.