

48th Session of the Commission on Population and Development
13-17 April 2015

Reproductive health, gender and sustainable development

Tuesday, 14 April 2015 (11:30 am – 1:00 pm)
Conference room 4, Conference Building

Moderator

Lakshmi Puri, Assistant Secretary-General of the United Nations and Deputy Executive Director of UN Women

Keynote Speaker

Suzana Cavenaghi

Professor, National School of Statistical Science, Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics

Ms. Suzana Cavenaghi is professor and researcher at the National School of Statistics (Ence), Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), and author of numerous scientific publications. Her research has focused mainly on reproductive health, fertility, public policy evaluation, and data analysis. She has collaborated with the Population Division of UN Department for Economic and Social Affairs and the UNFPA, and has served in the governing boards of the Brazilian Population Association and the Latin American Population Association. Suzana holds a Ph.D. in Sociology and Demography at the University of Texas at Austin, and is currently Coordinator of the Graduate Program at Ence and Editor of the Brazilian Journal of Population Studies.

For more information, contact the Population Division, Department of Economic and Social Affairs,
United Nations Secretariat.

Tel: 212-963-3179, e-mail: population@un.org website: www.unpopulation.org