Midday Workshop Schedule

Thursday, 6 September 2007

1:15 p.m. - 2:30p.m.
Conference Room 1

Faith Responses to Climate Change

Sponsored by The Episcopal Church

Focus will be on the Abrahamic traditions' (Christian, Jewish, Muslim) evolution in ecological practice and theology, with enrichment by other religious traditions’ participants. Best practices and challenges will be shared.

Moderator:
Martha Gardner, Environmental Ministries Consultant, The Episcopal Church

Speakers:
Bayram Mulic, Islamic Community and Cultural Centre PG NY, Department of Islamic Education

Lawrence Troster, Director, Green Faith Fellowship Program and inic Fellow at COEJL (Coalition on the Environment and Jewish Life)

Hellen Wangusa, Anglican Communion Observer at the United Nations

Homi Gandhi, Main NGO Representative to the UN, Federation of Zoroastrian Associations of North America, (FEZANA)