Updates to the website of the UN Committee for Development Policy 25 October 2012 – No. 08

Welcome to CDP Updates, an electronic digest keeping you informed about activities carried out by the Committee for Development Policy (CDP) and its Secretariat. Recent news and future activities include the following:

- New LDC data retrieval system: 2006, 2009, 2012 triennial reviews
The CDP Secretariat revamped its LDC data retrieval page. Data used for the three latest triennial reviews can be downloaded as excel files or accessed through Statplanet, an interactive graphical data interface. The interface allows users to visualize the status of countries according to the LDC criteria and to create custom-made maps and figures....

About the Committee for Development Policy (CDP):

The CDP is a subsidiary body of the United Nations Economic and Social Council. It provides inputs and independent advice to the Council on emerging cross-sectoral development issues and on international cooperation for development, focusing on medium- and long-term aspects. The CDP is also responsible for the triennial review of the list of least developed countries (LDCs).
