

Regional workshops on collecting and using migration data for development

- DESA in collaboration with ILO, IOM and UNHCR [Addis (2014), Dakar (2015), Rome (2016), Bangkok (2017), ...]
- Global and regional policy context
- Data sources (census, admin, surveys)
- Data standards
- Migration-related SDGs

Population Division

United Nations, Department of Economic and Social Affairs

Main capacity building needs

- Scale up regional workshops
- Professionalize learning materials
- Develop web-based learning programme
- Develop guidance on SDG migration indicators
- Disseminate tabulations from population census
- Disseminate data from administrative sources
- Hire regional advisers for in-country support

Population Division

United Nations, Department of Economic and Social Affairs

Aligning existing efforts

- Build on existing capacity building programmes on collecting and using migration data for development
- Implement existing UN recommendations (census, migration, remittance, refugees) and statistical classifications (education, labour, etc.)
- Involve GMG expertise (DESA, ILO, UNHCR, etc.)
- Funding (Sutherland report)

Population Division

United Nations, Department of Economic and Social Affairs

