

ECOSOC Decision 2004/277

Publishing the report of the Special Rapporteur on the rights of non-citizens

At its 49th plenary meeting, on 22 July 2004, the Economic and Social Council, recalling its decision 2000/283 of 28 July 2000,¹ authorizing a comprehensive study of the rights of non-citizens, and Commission on Human Rights decision 2000/104 of 25 April 2000,² decided that the updated and consolidated report on the rights of non-citizens should be published in all the official languages of the United Nations and given the widest possible distribution, in particular to Governments, specialized agencies, relevant bodies and agencies of the United Nations system (including the International Labour Organization, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, treaty bodies and the Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants), regional intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations.
