

Social Watch invites you to a side event during the Development Cooperation Forum

Outsourcing Development?

The debate will include civil society representatives, researchers and government officials and will address issues such as UN-sponsored “partnerships”, corporate access to ODA funds through so-called “leveraging”, legal reforms (such as a redefinition of ODA) to promote these instruments, corporate influence over norm-setting in global decision-making bodies, and risks of and alternatives to these new modalities.

Organized by Social Watch, in association with Global Policy Forum (other sponsors to be confirmed)

Copies of the Social Watch Report 2014 will be distributed.
