Indonesia as Middle Income Country

Indonesia increasingly plays a more active role in the global economy and development cooperation

Traditional Cooperation Change Factors:

-Middle income country since 2008 -Paris Declaration 2005 and Jakarta Commitment 2009 - As new emerging economy Development Cooperation and Global Partnership

Framework of Indonesia Development Cooperation

- UNDP and Indonesia signed a Partnership Framework Agreement (PFA) on 28 September 2012
- Two of the four objectives in the PFA aim at the strengthening of roles and involvement of Indonesia in international development cooperation in supporting other developing and least developed countries
- Since 2009, Indonesia has cooperated with UNDP to strengthen capacity, ownership, harmonization, accountability and transparency of its development programme within Indonesia's new role as LMIC
- In 2014 alone, UNDP has facilitated five South-South and Triangular Cooperation initiatives between Indonesia and four South countries, i.e. Myanmar (2), Uzbekistan, Vietnam and Morocco
