4th High Level Forum on Aid Effectiveness

29 Nov – 1 Dec 2011, Busan, Korea

The road leading to Busan

Shifting landscape for global development:

- Significant shifts in wealth
- Poverty and inequality persist within countries
- Increasingly complex global relations, strong interdependence between countries and regions
- Broad variety of resources available to enhance development

→ HLF4 reflected and addressed these changes

Why Busan was a success

1. Busan – more than previous high-level fora – demonstrated that developing countries can and should lead in setting the development agenda
2. Evidence-based process confirming the relevance of Paris principles and supporting international accountability
3. Whole-of-government forum ensuring high-level commitment for a global and forward-looking agenda
4. An inclusive agreement underpinned by transparent negotiations
5. Complementary, voluntary initiatives to reach common goals
