

2015 Annual ECOSOC Partnerships Forum

The role of partnerships in achieving the post-2015 development agenda: Making it happen

28 May 2015, 10:00 am - 6:00 pm (ECOSOC Chamber, UNHQ, NY)

 Keynote address at the opening at 10:00 a.m.

President Bill Clinton, Founder of the Clinton Foundation and 42nd President of the United States

 Special addresses by Ministers of Health of the Ebola-Affected Countries

 Dialogues on

Partnerships in support of strengthening health systems:
Building resilience to pandemics (11:00 – 13:00)

Partnerships for the post-2015 era: Reality check (15:00-18:00)

 Featuring

Professor Paul Farmer, Special Advisor to the Secretary-General on Community-based Medicine and Lessons from Haiti (moderator)

Dr. Anthony Fauci, Director, US National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases

Dr. Matshidiso Rebecca Moeti, Regional Director for Africa, WHO

Mr. Gary M. Cohen, Executive VP & President of Global Health, Becton, Dickinson and Co.

Mr. Jeffrey Wright, Actor, and Founder, Ebola Survival Fund

Dr. Rifat Atun, Professor of Global Health and Population, Harvard University

...

Ms. Brenda Killen, Deputy-Director, Development Cooperation Directorate, OECD (moderator)

Ms. Carolyn Miles, President and CEO, Save the Children

Professor Rolf-Dieter Heuer, Director-General, CERN

Mr. G.S. Krishnan, Regional President, Novozymes, India

H.E. Ambassador Guilherme de Aguiar Patriota, Permanent Mission of Brazil to the UN

Dr. Mercy Aunon, Special Representative for GAVI Eligible Countries, GAVI, the Vaccine Alliance

The latest programme, the list of side events and background documents are available at <http://www.un.org/en/ecosoc/partnership2015>.

@UNECOSOC

#Action2015 #EbolaResponse