

1st International Day of Yoga (21 June 2015)
Logo and Waiver of Liability

These guidelines must be provided to requesters. Whenever the special emblem is uploaded on the internet, the guidelines must be uploaded on the same page.

I. Design

Folding of both hands in the logo symbolizes Yoga, the union, which reflects the union of individual consciousness with that of universal consciousness, a perfect harmony between mind and body, man and nature; a holistic approach to health and wellbeing.

The brown leaves symbolize the Earth element; the green leaves symbolize Nature; blue symbolizes the Water element; brightness symbolizes the Fire element, and the Sun symbolizes the source of energy and inspiration. The logo reflects harmony and peace for humanity, which is the essence of yoga.

The date of 21 June 2015 and the words “Yoga for Harmony & Peace” appear below the logo.

The International Day of Yoga logo is available in the six official United Nations languages: Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish.

Interested entities are encouraged to translate the text into local languages, provided that they will state clearly that they are solely responsible for the accuracy of the translation.

II. Use of the logo

Use of the logo by United Nations offices, Funds and Programmes and other subsidiary organs and organizations of the United Nations System

United Nations offices, Funds and Programmes and other subsidiary organs and organizations of the United Nations System may use the International Day of Yoga logo without obtaining prior approval from the Outreach Division, UN Department of Public Information. However, for reporting purposes, the Outreach Division of the UN Department of Public Information should be informed of events and information materials and items for which the logo is used including, inter alia, publications, posters, brochures, videos, pins, T-shirts, etc.

The International Day of Yoga logo must be used in its entirety. Moreover, if the UN office, Fund and Programme or other subsidiary organ or organizations of the United Nations system has its own specific logo, the latter should be displayed side by side with the International Day of Yoga logo.

Use of the logo by non-UN entities

Entities outside the UN system, including Governments, intergovernmental organizations, not-for-profit organizations, and private sector entities, may use the logo after obtaining approval from the Outreach Division of the UN Department of Public Information in accordance with the requirements outlined below.

The logo of the International Day of Yoga is primarily intended for information.

a) Information uses of the logo

Information uses of the logo are those which are:

- Primarily illustrative;
- and
- Not intended to raise funds.

The International Day of Yoga logo must be used in its entirety. Moreover, it cannot be used alone but must be displayed side by side with the logo of the entity.

The logo of the entity must be given pre-eminence vis-à-vis the International Day of Yoga logo and the following sentence must be included below or in the proximity of the entity's logo: "[the name of the entity] supports the International Day of Yoga. The authorization is limited to the use of the International Day of Yoga logo, and the United Nations emblem cannot be used by the entity.

The authorization to use the International Day of Yoga logo does not permit the user of the logo to sub-license or to further authorize the use of the logo to any other entities.

Therefore, any non-UN entity interested in using the International Day of Yoga logo must apply for approval directly from the Outreach Division of the UN Department of Public Information.

When requesting approval, the entities must provide:

- A short statement of identity (nature of the entity and its objectives).

- An explanation of how and where the logo will be used, including the names of countries/territories where the logo will be used.
- A waiver of liability (please see the form below) signed by the entity requesting to use the logo.

III. Length of use of logo

The International Day of Yoga logo may be used until June 2015. The logo may be used beyond June 2015 for reporting and in reference to publications about the International Day of Yoga.

IV. Liability

All entities whose request to use the logo has been approved for the purposes specified herein must agree to the following provisions on waiver of liability.

- The entity is responsible for ensuring that the activities are carried out in accordance with the applicable law and for ensuring that the appropriate insurance is maintained to cover the risks arising out of such activities.
- The United Nations does not assume any responsibility for the activities of the entity.
- The entity shall hold harmless and defend the United Nations and its officials against any action that may be brought against the United Nations or its officials as a result of the use of the logo by the entity.

The waiver of liability form, signed by the entity, must be submitted with the request to use the logo. The entity will not carry out the proposed activities until the request is approved and the duly signed waiver of liability is received by the Outreach Division of the UN Department of Public Information.
