15. On 11 March 2016, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation sent the following note to the Ukrainian side:

Recently, Russian diplomatic and consular missions in Ukraine have been attacked by organized and trained militants belonging to Ukrainian nationalist groups. Their actions have been encouraged, and sometimes even led, by deputies of the Verkhovna Rada and Ukrainian political and public figures, which clearly proves that these provocations were planned.

As in the past, the personnel of Ukraine's law enforcement agencies did not react appropriately to the antics of the extremists.

It is particularly outrageous that V. Parasyuk, a deputy of the Verkhovna Rada, opted to violate the Russian national flag after it had been removed from the flagpole in front of the Consulate General of the Russian Federation in L'viv.

Russian diplomatic and consular missions have sustained serious damage and the lives and safety of their employees have been put at risk.

The Russian side demands that the Ukrainian side prosecute and punish all persons who were involved in those illegal actions.

The Russian side expects that, in the future, the Ukrainian authorities and law enforcement agencies will ensure all conditions necessary for the fulfilment of Ukraine's international obligations in compliance with the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations concerning the special duty of the receiving State to "take all appropriate steps to protect the premises of the mission against any intrusion or damage and to prevent any disturbance of the peace of the mission or impairment of its dignity".

The Ukrainian side bears full responsibility for any provocations against Russian diplomatic and consular missions in Ukraine and all adverse consequences.

On 10 June 2016, in Odessa, some 50 representatives of the Pravy sektor ("Right sector") and Azov civil corps blocked the Consulate General, where a gala reception to celebrate Russia

At approximately 1 a.m. on 17 September 2016, a police patrol unit arrived at the Embassy, conducted a cursory examination of the area from which the shelling had originated and left eight minutes later. At 6 a.m., an investigative unit of the Kyiv police arrived at the Embassy and removed the remaining elements of the firing devices from the scene.
