3. On 25 January 2017, the Secretary-General submitted separate answers to each of these appeals.

4. Article 18*bis*(1) of the Appeals Tribunal Rules of Procedure, provides that “[t]he President may, at any time, either on a motion of a party or on his or her own volition, issue any order which appears to be appropriate for the fair and expeditious management of the case and to do justice to the parties”.

5. In light of the fact that all fifty cases are related in that they involve a similar set of facts and challenge the same legal conclusions reached by the Dispute Tribunal in each of above-referenced judgments, the President has deemed that it is “appropriate for the fair and expeditious management of the case and to do justice to the parties” to consolidate these 50 appeals into seven groups to be heard by seven panels.
