7. The situation in the Central African Republic

During the period under review, the Security Council held twenty meetings in connection with the situation in the Central African Republic, including one closed meeting with troop- and police-contributing countries to the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA),¹ and adopted two presidential statements and six resolutions under Chapter VII of the Charter. The Council, working with the African Union, the Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS), the European Union and other regional and international partners gave sustained consideration to this item, focusing on constraining intercommunal confrontations between anti-Balaka and ex-Séléka to advance reconciliation process; promoting inclusive political dialogue and assisting with the constitutional referendum, and the legislative and presidential elections to complete the transition and restore peace and security; facilitating the delivery of and strengthening international action on humanitarian assistance to civilians affected by armed conflict, the displaced and refugees; and proceeding to disarmament, demobilization, reintegration and repatriation and preparing for security-sector reform.

By resolution 2149 \(2014\), the Council established the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA)² and requested the Secretary-General to subsume the presence of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in the Central African Republic (BINUCA)³ into MINUSCA via a seamless transition. The Council further decided to transfer authority from the African-led International Support Mission to the Central African Republic (MISCA) to MINUSCA, which took place on 15 September 2014. By resolution 2217 \(2015\), the Council extended the mandate of MINUSCA for a period of one year until 30 April 2016.

By resolution 2134 \(2014\), the sanctions regimes were further strengthened through applying a travel ban and assets freeze against individuals and entities designated by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\).⁴ By resolution 2196 \(2015\), the Council decided to extend the sanctions measures until 29 January 2016. The mandate of the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) was extended twice for one year each, in resolutions 2134 \(2014\) and 2196 \(2015\), respectively.⁵

⁴ For more information on the sanctions measures concerning the Central African Republic, see Part VII, section III, with regard to measures in accordance with Article 41.

⁵ For more information on the Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) and the mandate of the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\), see Part IX, section I, with regard to committees established under Chapter VII of the Charter.
