IMPROVE YOUR INTERNET SEARCHING SKILLS
WITH TIPS FROM AN EXPERT…

Internet Search Training Sessions from "Extreme Search" Expert,
 Randolph Hock

March 28 to 30, the Dag Hammarskjöld Library will host a series of Internet Search Training Sessions from "Extreme Searcher" expert, Randolph Hock. These are hands on courses and all participants will leave with their own handbook of resources and tips. All sessions are limited to 20 persons and will take place in the Library Training Room, L-270.

Select the best course to meet your work needs.
Class size is limited so registration is a must.
To register: Library Training (librarytraining@un.org) or call 212-963-5321

Tips and Techniques for more Effective Internet Searching
A 2 hour session that will provide the tools to improve your internet searches, get the most from search engines, and, use the Internet as your own personal reference shelf.

4 sessions offered - registration required
March 28 9:30 AM to 11:30 PM
12:30 PM to 2:30 PM
3:30 PM to 5:30 PM
March 29 2:30 PM to 4:30 PM

Countries on the Internet - Background, news, politics, and more …
Maximize the Internet to find current information on countries, including general background, news, politics, economy and more. Start with a look at some particular techniques available from search engines, then move to resources for general background, politics, news, news alerts, discussion groups, and other facets of the wide range of facts, perspectives and opinions that can easily be gathered by use of the Internet.

2 sessions offered - registration required
March 29 10 AM to 1 PM
March 30 2 PM to 5 PM

Using the Web for Economics and Social Science Research
Designed to help users of economics and social sciences information become more effective and efficient in the use of resources available through the Internet, the course will examine the relevant Web tools that can assist you to find this information easily, including search engines, general directories, and specialized Web directories that focus on economics and social concerns. A variety of sites will be covered that provide access to international and country-specific data and information such as economic indicators, demographics, trade and industry data, background studies, and related material.

1 session - registration required
March 30 10 AM to 1 PM

Class size is limited so registration is a must.
To register: Library Training (librarytraining@un.org) or call 212-963-5321

Arranged by the United Nations, Dag Hammarskjöld Library, Outreach Division, DPI