Qatar: * draft resolution

Preventing and combating corrupt practices and transfer of funds of illicit origin and returning such assets to the countries of origin

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 58/205 of December 2003, on preventing and combating corrupt practices and transfer of funds of illicit origin and returning such funds to the countries of origin,

Recalling also the Monterrey Consensus of the International Conference on Financing for Development,<sup>1</sup> which underlined that fighting corruption at all levels is a priority, and the Plan of Implementation of the World Summit on Sustainable Development (“Johannesburg Plan of Implementation”),<sup>2</sup>

Recognizing that corruption at all levels is a serious barrier to development and diverts resources away from activities that are vital for hunger and poverty eradication and economic and sustainable development,

<sup>2</sup> Report of the World Summit on Sustainable Development, Johannesburg, South Africa, 26 August-4 September 2002 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.03.II.A.1 and corrigendum), chap. I, resolution 2, annex.

Reiterating its concern about the seriousness of problems posed by continuing corrupt practices, which may endanger the stability and security of societies, undermine the values of democracy and civil ethics and jeopardize sustainable and political development, in particular when an inadequate national and international response leads to impunity,

Considering that the prevention of corrupt practices and transfer of assets of illicit origin and the return of such assets to the countries of origin have not been adequately regulated by all national legislations and international legal instruments,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on preventing and combating corrupt practices and transfer of funds of illicit origin and returning such assets to the countries of origin;<sup>3</sup>
2. Recognizes the efforts of Member States that have enacted laws to prevent and combat corrupt practices and the transfer of illicitly acquired assets and for the return of such assets to the countries of origin, in accordance with the United Nations Convention against Corruption and encourages Member States that have not yet done so to enact such laws;
3. Also encourages all Member States that have not yet done so to require financial institutions to properly implement comprehensive due diligence and vigilance programmes that could facilitate transparency and prevent the placement of illicitly acquired funds;
4. Further encourages sub regional and regional cooperation, where appropriate, in the efforts to prevent and combat corrupt practices and the transfer of assets of illicit origin and for the return of such assets to the countries of origin;
5. Calls for further international cooperation, inter alia, through the United Nations system, in support of national, sub regional and regional efforts to prevent and address the transfer of assets of illicit origin, as well as to return such assets to the countries of origin;

6. Reiterates its request to the international community to provide, inter alia, technical assistance to support national efforts to strengthen human and institutional capacity aimed at preventing corrupt practices and the transfer of assets of illicit origin, returning such assets to the countries of origin and formulating strategies for mainstreaming and promoting transparency and integrity in both the public and private sector;

7. Calls upon the private sector, at both the national and the international levels, including small and large companies and transnational corporations to remain fully engaged in the fight against corruption, and emphasizes the need to take concrete actions within the United Nations system and through the participation of all relevant stakeholders to ensure corporate responsibility and accountability, as well as to fight corruption at all levels more effectively; and takes note of the agreement to add anti-corruption to the Global Compact summit platform in June 2004;

8. Reiterates its invitation to all Member States and competent regional economic organizations to sign, ratify and fully implement the United Nations Convention against Corruption as soon as possible in order to ensure its rapid entry into force;

9. Takes note of the initiatives taken by the Group of Eight and the Commonwealth Secretariat with regard to preventing and combating corrupt practices and transfer of funds of illicit origin and returning such assets to the countries of origin;

10. Encourages Member States to provide adequate financial and human resources to the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and invites further efforts to coordinate existing and future initiatives taken by Member States and other organizations with the work of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime in the area of preventing and combating corrupt practices and the transfer of funds of illicit origin and returning such assets to the countries of origin;

11. Further encourages the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to give high priority to technical cooperation, upon request, to facilitate the signing and ratification, acceptance, approval or accession and the subsequent implementation of the United Nations Convention Against Corruption, including the early finalization of the legislative guide for the ratification and implementation of the Convention;

12. Expresses its concern over the transfer and/or transaction of assets of illicit origin from developing and developed countries, which seriously undermine their economic growth and development, besides deepening hunger and poverty, fostering crime and facilitating terrorism;

13. Encourages Member States to prevent, detect and penalize the transfer of illicitly acquired assets and to return such assets to the countries of origin;

14. Calls upon the SG to commission an analytical study by UNCTAD to ascertain the extent and scale of the transfer of illicitly acquired assets from the developing countries and to examine their impact on the economic growth and development of developing countries and to make recommendations on how such outflows can be halted;

15. Encourages Member States, relevant international organizations and the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to give prominence to the International Day against Corruption established by General Assembly resolution 58/4;

16. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its sixtieth session a report on the implementation of the present resolution under the sub-item entitled "Preventing and combating corrupt practices and transfer of funds and assets of illicit origin and returning such funds and assets to the countries of origin".
