All country delegations have been assigned seats (1+1) in either Conference Room 2 or Conference Room 4 in an equitable, geographically balanced manner. Ministers will be seated in alphabetical order by country in the front and center of each room. All other country delegations will be seated in alphabetical order with no distinction between members and observers of the Commission. These arrangements will remain in place for the three sets of round tables. Representatives of IGOs and UN agencies, funds and programmes can pick up their signs at the Conference Officers' desk.
