

LIST OF PAPERS

- The diversity of changing population age structures in the world
Population Division, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, United Nations Secretariat
- Implementing the Madrid Plan of Action on Ageing
Division for Social Policy and Development, Department of Economic and Social Affairs, United Nations Secretariat
- Demographic transition and demographic dividends in developed and developing countries
Andrew Mason
- Before it's too late: demographic transition, labour supply, and social security problems in Brazil
Cassio M. Turra and Bernardo L. Queiroz
- Demographic dividend and labour force transformations in Asia: the case of the Republic of Korea
Hanam Phang
- Demographic dividend and prospects for economic development in China
Feng Wang and Andrew Mason
- A global overview on social security in the age of longevity
Roland Sigg
- Population ageing and social protection systems in Latin America
Fabio Bertranou
- Ageing in Japan: the health and wealth of older persons
Naohiro Ogawa and Rikiya Matsukura
- Ageing and health in the transition countries of Europe with focus on the Hungarian case
Etelka Daróczy
- Ageing in Latin America and the Caribbean: implications of past mortality
Alberto Palloni, Mary McEniry, Rebeca Wong and Martha Pelaez
- Demographic transition, demographic bonus and ageing in Mexico
Virgilio Partida-Bush
- Social security and population ageing in Mexico: analysis of the individual account retirement pension system
Alberto Valencia Armas
- Formal and informal intergenerational support transfers in South-eastern Asia
Angelique Chan
- Micro and macro perspectives on intergenerational relations and transfers in Europe
Gunhild O. Hagestad and Katharina Herlofson
- Intergenerational transfers and social protection in Latin America
Jorge Bravo