

Forthcoming Event:

International Meeting with Civil Society

Córdoba 17-18 October 2011

Córdoba Dialogue

Citizenship for a Sustainable Planet

On October 17-18, UNEP, together with the Spanish Ministry for Environment, Rural and Marine Affairs will organise a dialogue with civil society - the “Córdoba Dialogue”.

This is an international event, open to all, but especially oriented to NGOs, trade unions, and civil groups working for gender equality and for a fairer and more cooperative world. There will be a special emphasis on civil society from developing countries. This important event seeks to strengthen the participation of this sector in developing countries as a cooperation mechanism reinforcing UNEP's role in the preparatory process toward UNCSD 2012 and ultimately aiming to ensure that the outcome of this conference is inclusive.

Registration for this event is now open. UNEP invites all interest Major Groups and Stakeholders to register as soon as possible for this event.
