Tanya Imola

Tanya Imola is the International Media Coordinator for ICLEI - Local Governments for Sustainability.

ICLEI is an international association of local governments and national and regional local government associations that have made a commitment to sustainable development. ICLEI works with its membership of over 550 local governments through international performance-based, results-oriented campaigns and programs. Tanya will highlight today one of ICLEI's most effective programs, the Cities for Climate Protection® Campaign. Through the commitments of the over 670 local governments worldwide participating in the Campaign, local governments are leading the fight against climate change and creating models for national change.

Responsible for communications and public relations for the international association, Tanya also coordinates the Local Authorities Major Group at CSD for ICLEI and its local government association partners.
