

GVEP
International

Monitoring and Evaluation in Sustainable Energy Projects

United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development
Tuesday 8th May – 10am-1pm
Learning Centre
Conference Room B

GVEP
International

Agenda

10.00-10.20 am	Welcome and introduction to M&EED Group (Sarah Adams, GVEP Intl)
10.20-10.45 am	A general framework for M&E (Edgar Blaustein, MAE)
10.45-11.00 am	Questions
11.00-11.25 am	Household energy module (Marlis Kees, GTZ)
11.25-11.40 am	Questions
11.40-12.00 am	Triple bottom line assessment (Gina Rodolico, E+Co)
12.00-12.10 am	Questions
12.10-12.30 am	M&E in urban areas (Simone Lawaetz, USAID)
12.30-1.00 pm	Questions

GVEP
International

M&EED Intl Working Group

Monitoring & Evaluation of Energy for Development

Why monitoring and evaluation?

What level?

Why form a working group?

- pool experience and share best practice
- develop a guide to assist others particularly smaller organisations

GVEP
International

M&EED Intl Working Group – Who is in it?

EUEI	GTZ
GVEP	ADEME
EDF	E+Co
PNUD/PREP	USAID
GNESD	FES
UNEP	SenterNovem
IT Power	Fraunhofer ISI
ENERGIA
ESMAP, UNIDO, IAEA, UN Foundation,,,

GVEP
International

M&EED GUIDE

- A general framework
- Thematic modules
 - Decentralised rural electrification
 - Rural electrification by grid extension
 - Regularisation by urban electrification
 - Improved biomass stoves
 - Institutional support
 - Including gender goals in energy projects and developing appropriate indicators

For the full guide go to www.gvep.org