

7 artists
6 GLOBAL REGIONS

United Nations
Department of Public Information

Please join the United Nations Department of Public Information, the United Nations Environment Programme, and the Natural World Museum for this international seminar and exhibit launch as part of the Unlearning Intolerance seminar series and the global Art for the Environment Initiative.

UNITED NATIONS UNLEARNING INTOLERANCE SEMINAR

Art Changing Attitudes
Toward the Environment

United Nations Headquarters
Thursday, May 8, 2008

REGISTRATION
9:00 am - 9:45 am
Online Pre-Registration
Required

SESSION 1
10:00 am - 12:30 pm
Confronting Environmental
Intolerance:
Art, Action and Human Security

SESSION 2
3:00 pm - 5:30 pm
Art for Change:
Vehicles for Environmental Action

Opening remarks and Session 1 Moderator: Kiyotaka Akasaka, UN Under Secretary General for Communications and Public Information

Artist Seminar Panelists: Noor Al-Bastaki, El Anatsui, Subhankar Banerjee, Catherine Chalmers, Ichi Ikeda, Philippe Pastor and Cecilia Paredes

Expert Panelists: Ahmed Djoghlaif, Executive Secretary of the Convention on Biological Diversity
Elisabeth Guilbaud-Cox, Deputy Director, United Nations Environment Programme, Regional Office North America

Session 2 Moderator: Eric Falt, Director, Outreach Division, United Nations Department of Public Information

NATURAL WORLD MUSEUM INTERNATIONAL ART EXHIBITION

Art, Attitudes & Environment
United Nations Visitors Lobby

EXHIBIT OPEN TO PUBLIC

May 2 - May 31, 2008

10:00 am - 5:00 pm

About the Exhibit: Unlearning Intolerance: Art, Attitudes & Environment, is directly tied to the seminar, Unlearning Intolerance: Art Changing Attitudes Towards the Environment. The exhibition compliments and expands upon the ideologies presented at the seminar, such as the connections between art, action, and human security, or art as vehicles for environmental action. Seven artists representing six global regions present their art to generate dialogue as an alternative approach in strengthening community engagement in conservation and preservation.

RSVP for the Seminar: unchronicle@un.org Tel: 917 367 9326/3030

RSVP for the Exhibit Reception: events@naturalworldmuseum.org Tel: +1 415 402 0583

United Nations Headquarters - First Avenue at 46th St., New York, NY 10017

www.un.org/Pubs/chronicle/tolerance/

For more information please visit us at www.naturalworldmuseum.org