INTRODUCTION

The present volume constitutes the twelfth supplement to the Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council, 1946-1951, which was issued in 1954. It covers the proceedings of the Security Council from the 3155th meeting on 7 January 1993 to the 3615th meeting on 22 December 1995.

The Repertoire was mandated by the General Assembly in its resolution 686 (VII) of 5 December 1952 entitled “Ways and means for making the evidence of customary international law more readily available”. It is a guide to the proceedings of the Council and sets forth in a readily accessible form the practices and procedures to which the Council has had recourse. The Repertoire is not intended as a substitute for the records of the Council which constitute the only comprehensive and authoritative account of its deliberations.

The categories employed to arrange the material are not intended to suggest the existence of procedures or practices that have not been clearly or demonstrably established by the Council itself. The Council is at all times, within the framework of the Charter of the United Nations, its own provisional rules of procedure, and practice established through notes by the President of the Security Council, “master of its own procedure”.

In recording the Council’s practice, the headings under which the practices and procedures of the Council were presented in the original volume have been largely retained. Where necessary, however, adjustments have been made to better reflect the Council’s practice. The use of double asterisks (**) to denote topics not considered anew by the Council has been discontinued. For ease of reference, the studies contained in chapter VIII are organized according to region or general issues. In addition, this introduction contains a table indicating the membership of the Security Council during the period under review.

The agenda items considered by the Council during 1993-1995, and the meetings at which they were considered, are presented in a table hereunder in the order in which the items were initially taken up during the period.

* * *

Symbols of United Nations documents are composed of capital letters combined with figures. A symbol beginning with “S/” such as S/1995/208 indicates a Security Council document. References to the verbatim records of meetings of the Council are given in the form S/PV.3450, p. 2. As in the previous volume, reference is made in this Supplement only to the provisional verbatim records of Security Council meetings, as the practice of publishing the meeting records in the Official Records has been discontinued.

The resolutions adopted by the Security Council and most of the statements by the President are published in the yearly volumes of Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council. Resolutions are identified by a number followed by the year of adoption in parentheses, for example, resolution 964 (1994). Statements by the President not included in the yearly volumes are recorded in the relevant verbatim records.

Readers who wish to consult the full record of a meeting or the text of a Security Council document referred to in the Repertoire may do so on the official United Nations Documentation Centre website, <http://www.un.org/documents/>. Security Council documents can be accessed on the website by selecting “Official Document System of the United Nations (ODS)” or one of the direct links to specific categories of documents. Other volumes of the Repertoire may be consulted at <http://www.un.org/Depts/dpa/repertoire/index.html>.
