

Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council
Supplement 1993 - 1995

CHAPTER IX

DECISIONS IN THE EXERCISE BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL OF ITS OTHER FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

NOTE

During the period under review, the Security Council took a number of decisions in the exercise of its functions and powers other than those relating to the maintenance of international peace and security. The Council took decisions relating to: (a) the election of members of the International Court of Justice; (b) the termination of a trusteeship agreement and the completion of the mandate of the Trusteeship Council under the Charter, which are dealt with in Chapter VI¹; (c) the question of the admission of new Members to the United Nations, which is dealt with in Chapter VII.

¹ Statements made by the President of the Security Council in connection with the establishment of a special mission to Afghanistan, under the auspices of the General Assembly, are also considered in Chapter VI.
