On June 9, 2008, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria presents the 2008 Awards for Business Excellence Gala, honoring global leaders in the fight against HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria. The Gala coincides with the UN's High-Level meeting on AIDS; a number of visiting dignitaries will join us for the evening's reception and dinner.

Distinguished guests at the Gala include United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, President Jorge Sampaio, UN Special Envoy to Stop TB; and Ray Chambers, UN Special Envoy for Malaria. Singer/actress Queen Latifah will host the evening. Grammy Award-winning violinist Miri Ben-Ari will also perform at the gala.

The Gala will bring together more than 700 people including high-level dignitaries and some of the biggest names in business and global philanthropy. The Awards for Business Excellence showcase the approaches and execution that have produced outstanding on-the-ground impact in the fight against HIV/AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria.

Awards are presented in nine categories: community, core competence, malaria, supply chain, tuberculosis, women and girls, workplace programs and leadership. Last year's winners include Abbott and Abbott Fund, Chevron, Coca-Cola China Beverages Limited, Eli Lilly & Company, Eskom Holdings Ltd, HBO, Marathon Oil Corporation and Standard Chartered PLC.
