

Delegates to the United Nations General Assembly
Special Session on HIV/AIDS and
Members of the Ministries of Health
Are invited to Attend

HIV/AIDS

CURRENT MEDICAL AND SCIENTIFIC ISSUES: UPDATES FOR THE NON-SCIENTIST

Sunday, June 8, 2008, 4:30PM-7:30PM
NYU School of Medicine Farkas Auditorium, Alumni Hall
550, First Avenue at 32nd Street

4:30 PM- Reception at NYU School of Medicine, Alumni Hall
Hors d'oeuvres and Refreshments will be served

5:20 PM- Symposium

Welcoming comments: Overview of the NYU Center for Global Health and Center for AIDS Research – Karen Day, PhD, Director of the Center for Global Health

How HIV causes AIDS, mutations and recombinant viruses. Fred Valentine, MD, Director of the Center For AIDS Research

Treatments for HIV: new and old, side effects and resistance – Judith Aberg, MD, Director of the AIDS Clinical Trial Unit

Vaccines for HIV; what are the obstacles? – Susan Zolla-Pazner, PhD, Director of Research AIDS Center, Veterans Affairs Medical Center

HIV and tuberculosis, a two way lethal combination – Michael Weiden, MD, Associate Professor of Medicine and Environmental Medicine

HIV and malaria: interactions and implications – Donald Chen, MD, Instructor of Medicine Infectious Diseases & Immunology, Division of Infectious Diseases

Pediatric HIV disease and infected infants who are now mothers – William Borkowsky, MD, Professor of Pediatrics, Director of The Saul Krugman Division of Infectious Diseases and Immunology

Elements of a successful HIV and comprehensive treatment clinic (in Kenya) – Sumathi Sivapalasingam, MD, Assistant Professor, Associate Director, International HIV Program, Center for AIDS Research

Questions and Discussion. Fred Valentine, MD, Moderator

7:30 PM - Scheduled finish

