

26 June 2007

Excellency,

I have the honor to transmit to you, herewith, the Report just submitted to me by Their Excellencies Ambassador Heraldo Muñoz, the Permanent Representative of Chile, and Ambassador Christian Wenaweser, the Permanent Representative of Liechtenstein, pursuant to the mandate I have given them in my letter of 22 May 2007 to conduct consultations with the membership, on the basis of the five facilitator's report of 19 April 2007, on how to move Security Council reform process forward in formats they may deem useful; and to report back to me on the outcome of these consultations before the end of June 2007.

I wish to thank Ambassador Heraldo Muñoz and Ambassador Christian Wenaweser for the dedicated and competent manner in which they have conducted this new phase of consultations on Security Council reform, in accordance with the mandate I gave them.

I am also grateful to Their Excellencies Ambassador Ali Hachani, the Permanent Representative of Tunisia; Ambassador Andreas D. Mavroyiannis, the Permanent Representative of Cyprus; Ambassador Mirjana Mladineo, the Permanent Representative of Croatia; and, Ambassador Frank Majoer, the Permanent Representative of Netherlands who have continued to advise me on Security Council reform.

I welcome this report which is intended to assist Member States in their further consideration of an intermediary approach, if they so choose. I agree that the decision whether to further pursue this approach lies with the Member States. I wish to underline that this report is complementary to the five Facilitators' report of 19 April 2007, and the two documents should be read together.

The commitment to Security Council reform that all States undertook at the 2005 World Summit is yet to be fulfilled, and the prevailing view among the membership continues to be that status quo is not acceptable.

Permanent Observers to the United Nations

To allow all delegations to thoroughly review this report and receive guidance from their respective capitals, as appropriate, I have requested unofficial translations of the text in all other official languages. These will be made available as soon as possible, in advance of the informal open-ended meeting which I intend to convene on Thursday, 19 July 2007.

My personal commitment to the goal of Security Council reform remains unchanged and I stand ready to guide the membership in their future work. I concur with the view that, in order to move the process forward, the next stage should consist of intergovernmental negotiations.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
