

Lehman Brothers

Lehman Brothers, an innovator in global finance, serves the financial needs of corporations, governments and municipalities, institutional clients, and high net worth individuals worldwide. Founded in 1850, Lehman Brothers maintains leadership positions in equity and fixed income sales, trading and research, investment banking, private investment management, asset management and private equity. The Firm is headquartered in New York, with regional headquarters in London and Tokyo, and operates in a network of offices around the world. In 2007, the Firm created the Lehman Brothers Council on Climate Change, which works to facilitate high quality dialogue among business leaders, policy-makers, academic and non-governmental officials about the political, economic and technological drivers of climate change policy.