

UN General Assembly on Global Private investments and Climate Change

Biography of Pierre Lagrange

Pierre has 19 years of experience in portfolio management and investment research. In 1995 Pierre co-founded GLG Partners with overall responsibility for European and Global Equities, including sector long-short and long-only funds. Prior to that, Pierre worked at Goldman Sachs from 1990, where he had responsibility for managing global equity portfolios and at JP Morgan from 1985 where he worked in government bond trading. Pierre started his career at Exxon Chemicals. Pierre holds an MA in Engineering at Solvay Business School in Brussels.