

Pedro Páez, Minister for Economic Policy Coordination of Ecuador and Coordinator of the Southern Bank. Professor Pedro Páez has taught Econometrics, Macroeconomics, Sustainable Development and Public Finance in several Ecuadorian universities. He has participated in efforts to design a New Financial Architecture for Ecuador following the financial crisis and the dollarization process. He has two decades of experience in economic policy and institutional design.