

Special Representative of the Secretary-General (SRSG) visits Aileu District

UN Special Representative, Kamallesh Sharma, continued his round of visits to Aileu District today.

Mr. Sharma met with ETPS District Commander Henrique da Costa and the District Administrator Maria Paixão. He toured ETPS District Headquarters and observed the daily activities of Aileu Kota Police Station.

During his visit, the UN Special Representative made an especial appeal to the East Timor Police Service officers and the District Administration to work together to maintain continuing stability in Aileu. He said, “The district has been one of the most peaceful in East Timor during the transitional period, and I am confident that together you will maintain peaceful community relations through sound policing and a responsive District Administration”.
