8TH PKF INFORMATION CONFERENCE

The 8th PKF Conference was convened yesterday, at the UNMISSET Peacekeeping Force Headquarters in Dili.

The conference aim was to review and share a common picture of situation awareness within East Timor and identify factors that could influence the stability and security of the country.

Attendees included the Force Commander Major General Tan Huck Gim, Deputy Force Commander, Brigadier Justin Kelly and a number of PKF representatives from different countries and sectors.

UN Police and a representative of UNMISSET Political Affairs were also present.

HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING CONTINUES

The third training course on Human Rights and Conflict Management for members of the Special Police Unit commenced on Monday in Dili. The course is intended to provide fundamental training on basic human rights standards particularly on the use of force and conflict management. Two further courses for SPU members will be held in Baucau next week.
