HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING CONTINUES IN THE DISTRICTS

Officers of the Special Police Unit (SPU) in Baucau are attending human rights training which began on Monday. The course has been divided into 2 groups. Each course is for 3 days and will be attended by 52 participants.

The Human Rights Unit together with an international trainer who is an experienced police officer is facilitating the courses.

The focus is on maintaining human rights standards in the context of the work of the SPU, which includes crowd management and riot control.

Meanwhile district training for ETPS on human rights and child rights that is being facilitated by UNPOL, the Human Rights Unit and UNICEF is also ongoing.

A two-day course for officers in Manatuto began on Monday and concluded today. This will be followed by a similar course in Los Palos, which starts tomorrow and ends on Thursday.
