DSRSG TO ATTEND CONFERENCE IN JAPAN

DSRSG is scheduled to participate in a three-day conference on peacekeeping, which starts on Monday in Tokyo.

The aim of the conference is to review the experiences of the UN Transitional Administration in East Timor, the peacekeeping mission during the transitional period until East Timor became independent on May 20 this year.

About 40 participants are expecting to take part in the meeting.

While in Tokyo DSRSG will meet with senior officials of Foreign Minister and members of parliament to explain the projects in East Timor.
