TRAINING FOR CAVR STAFF

UN Human Rights Unit has been providing training for 75 staff members of the Commission on Reception, Truth and Reconciliation in the districts of Aileu, Ermera, Same, Ainaro, Suai and Maliana.

The two-week training began on 9 September and ended today.

Further training will be provided to the commission's staff in the areas identified as weak in order to better their work.

Meanwhile CAVR is working on a radio program to be aired weekly for one hour about the commission's work

The aim of this program is to update the community on the development process of the commission and to better encourage their participation in the reconciliation process.

The program is scheduled to be aired until April 2004.
