TRANSFER OF POLICE RESPONSABILITIES

United Nations Police will transfer its services in Same, Manufahi district to East Timor Police Force tomorrow.

The ceremony will start with an inspection of the parade by the Minister of Internal Administration, Rogerio Lobato, following by a keynote address by Deputy East Timor Police Service Commissioner, Elias Luis.

About 100 Timorese police officers will be working in that district with the support of 3 UN Police technical advisers.

DSRSG, Sukehiro Hasegawa, ETPS Police Commissioner Paulo Martins and other UNPOL officers are schedule to attend the event.

This is the third district to be under ETPS authority. The first two are Aileu and Manatuto.
