

THE PRESIDENT
OF THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

15 April 2015

Excellency,

In accordance with resolution 69/267 of 26 February 2015, I would like to inform you that I will convene a special solemn meeting of the General Assembly in commemoration of all victims of the Second World War, on 5 May 2015 at 10:00 a.m. in the General Assembly Hall.

The meeting will take place in the context of the observance of the seventieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

I encourage you to participate in the solemn meeting.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

General Assembly

Distr.: General
11 March 2015

Sixty-ninth session
Agenda item 129

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 26 February 2015

[without reference to a Main Committee (A/69/L.52 and Add.1)]

69/267. Seventieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 59/26 of 22 November 2004, in which it, inter alia, declared 8 and 9 May as a time of remembrance and reconciliation, while recognizing that Member States may have individual dates of victory, liberation and commemoration,

Recalling also that 2015 will mark the seventieth anniversary of the end of the Second World War, a war which brought untold sorrow to humankind, particularly in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Pacific and other parts of the world,

Stressing that this historic event established the conditions for the creation of the United Nations, designed to prevent future wars and save succeeding generations from their scourge,

Recalling that 2015 will mark the seventieth anniversary of the creation of the United Nations,

Calling upon the States Members of the United Nations to unite their efforts in dealing with challenges and threats to international peace and security, with the United Nations playing a central role, and to make every effort to refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any State, or in any other manner inconsistent with the purposes of the United Nations, and to settle all disputes by peaceful means in conformity with the Charter of the United Nations,

Underlining the progress made since the end of the Second World War in overcoming its legacy and promoting reconciliation, international and regional cooperation and democratic values, human rights and fundamental freedoms, in particular through the United Nations, and the establishment of regional and subregional organizations and other appropriate frameworks,

1. Invites all Member States, organizations of the United Nations system, non-governmental organizations and individuals to observe these days in an appropriate manner to pay tribute to all victims of the Second World War;

2. Requests the President of the General Assembly to hold a special solemn meeting of the General Assembly in the second week of May 2015 in commemoration of all victims of the war;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to bring the present resolution to the attention of all Member States and organizations of the United Nations system and to take measures necessary for its implementation.

*80th plenary meeting
26 February 2015*
