

Table A17. Indicators 42 and 43. Least developed countries that have reached their Heavily Indebted Poor Countries Initiative decision point and completion point and debt relief committed under HIPC Initiative ^{a b}

Total debt relief committed, cumulative, 1/2/2000-23/2/2004, $US 51.691, of which $US 36.949 billion for least developed countries

	2000	2001	2002	2003	Debt committed relief ($US million)
Africa ^b
Angola
Benin	D			C	460
Burkina Faso	D		C		930
Burundi
Cape Verde
Central African Rep.
Chad		D			260
Comoros
Dem. Rep. of the Congo				D	10,389
Djibouti
Equatorial Guinea
Eritrea
Ethiopia		D			1,930
Gambia	D				90
Guinea	D				800
Guinea-Bissau	D				790
Lesotho					1,500
Liberia
Madagascar	D
Malawi	D				1,000
Mali	D			C	895
Mauritania	D		C		1,100
Mozambique	D	C			4,300
Niger	D				900
Rwanda	D				800
Sao Tome & Principe	D				200
Senegal	D				850
Sierra Leone			D		950
Somalia
Sudan
Togo
Uganda	D,C				1,950
United Rep. of Tanzania	D	C			3,000
Zambia	D				3,850
Total					36,944

Source : International Monetary Fund and World Bank.

Note: C indicates completion point. D indicates decision point.

^a Except for Côte d'Ivoire, the dates refer to the HIPC enhanced framework. The following countries also reached decision points under the original framework: Bolivia in September 1997, Burkina Faso in September 1997, Guyana in December 1997, Mali in September 1998, Mozambique in April 1998, Cote d'Ivoire in March 1998, and Uganda in April 1997. The following countries also reached completion points under the original framework: Bolivia in September 1998, Burkina Faso in July 2000, Guyana in May 1999, Mali in September 2000, Mozambique in July 1999, and Uganda in April 1998.

^b There are no least developed countries in the HIPC Initiative enhanced framework outside of sub-Saharan Africa.