

Adults and children estimated to be living with HIV in 2008

Total: 33.4 million (31.1–35.8 million)

The ranges around the estimates define the boundaries within which the actual numbers lie, based on the best available information.

