

Promoting equal inclusion, recognition and access for all persons in the United Nations system worldwide

This event is to mark the launching of UN-SONG

26 September 2016

1:15-2:30 pm

ECOSOC Chamber, United Nations Headquarters
New York

Come join us for an afternoon of words, performance and a panel discussion on the theme of Diversity and Inclusion

Moderated by:
Dr. Delois Blakeley

Distinguished Speakers:

Ambassador Rhonda King, Ambassador/Permanent Representative,
Permanent Mission of St. Vincent & the Grenadines.

Djamila Ribiero, Brazilian Philosopher

Angela Rye, CNN Political Commentator & NPR Political Analyst

Alison C. N. Cave, Diversity & Inclusion Officer, World Bank

Yrthya Dinzey-Flores, Executive Director, Corporate Social Responsibility & Diversity, Time
Warner Company

With performances from the Gullahs of South Carolina, United States and from the world renowned Central Unica Das Favelas (CUFA) of Brazil

To register click on this link: <http://bit.ly/2cL0N11>

Supported by the United States, Brazil, Jamaica, St. Vincent & Grenadines Permanent Missions to the United Nations

