

Agenda

High Level Meeting on Women's Access to Justice

Thursday, 6 July, 2017
Conference Room 12, UN Secretariat
3:00p.m. – 6:00p.m.

Moderator: Maria-Noel Vaeza-Ogilvie, Director of Programmes, UN Women

Welcome and opening remarks by the Chair: Ambassador May-Elin Stener, Deputy Permanent Representative, Permanent Mission of Norway to the United Nations

Remarks by the Co-Chair: Honorable Joseph Fitzgerald Kamara, Attorney General and Minister of Justice, Sierra Leone

Statements by partners:

- UN Women: Dr. Yannick Glemarec, UN Assistant Secretary-General and Deputy Executive Director, UN Women
- Global Focal Point Representative: (UNDP/DPKO tbc)
- UNODC: Matteo Pasquali, Head of UNODC Office, New York
- IDLO: Patrizio Civili: Permanent Observer to the United Nations

Video Clip on the Afghanistan Context: Symphony of Echoes

Sharing of experiences by National Partners:

- Uganda: Lord Justice Bart Magunda Katureebe, Chief Justice, Uganda - Why access to justice is important for women and girls in Northern Uganda
- Nepal: Honorable Sapana Pradhan Malla, Justice of the Supreme Court of Nepal - Addressing the justice needs of women and girls affected by conflict and humanitarian disaster
- Afghanistan: Dr. Sima Samar, Chairperson, Independent Human Rights Commission of Afghanistan - Experiences of addressing violence against women and girls through the justice system

Plenary discussion

Closing remarks: Co-Chairs

Summary and wrap up: Moderator